A Message from the President

The call is clear, the need is overwhelming, and the time is short. Jesus has entrusted His followers, the Church, with the commission of reaching our world with the gospel of the Kingdom in order to make disciples, replicating the character and ministry of Jesus Himself.

Our immediate mission field is the Central Valley where less than 20% of our population attend church on any given Sunday. This is far less than the percentage of attendance in countries like Nigeria and Haiti. Our challenge has been to make disciples and prepare people for vocational as well as marketplace ministry at a point in life when they have families, mortgages, and responsibilities which prevent uprooting and going to Bible College or Seminary.

We believe that like produces like; and while Christians should reproduce Christians, churches should reproduce churches. Therefore Central Valley School of Ministry was founded from within the local church and exists to serve all local churches in the area in raising up leaders and pastors who will help many local churches reproduce themselves.

Not only will Central Valley School of Ministry help to meet the ministry needs of our area, but we believe God will even send our graduates to the nations. We are a global-minded School of Ministry attempting to make global-minded disciples.

I pray that you will consider how the school can further equip you for works of ministry and I look forward to meeting you and serving you as we labor together for God's glory.

Brian Cain, MA New Testament Theology

General Information

HISTORY

Central Valley School of Ministry began in Fall 2005 as a local church-based ministry training school serving the Central California San Joaquin Valley. CVSOM was started to meet the need for convenient, accessible and practical ministry training for leaders serving in the local church and ministering for Christ in the workplace. In the first twelve years over three hundred and forty have enrolled and more than two hundred and twenty have completed the one-year ministry training program.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Central Valley School of Ministry exists to develop Christian leaders in biblical understanding, ministry skills and personal maturity, equipping them to fulfill God's call to serve the local church, establish new churches, minister cross-culturally and develop workplace ministry.

AFFILIATION

Central Valley School of Ministry is a non-profit school affiliated with The Foursquare Denomination. The school is a certified training institution of The Foursquare Church. It is interdenominational and welcomes students from other Christian churches. Central Valley School of Ministry is not accredited. The goal is ministry training and certification rather than degree completion. However, transferability of credits is available with Life Pacific College, The King's University, California Christian College, and South Eastern University

LOCATION

Central Valley School of Ministry is located at Valley Christian Center and meets on their campus at 4649 E. Shields in Fresno, California, located in the Central San Joaquin Valley. Central Valley School of Ministry is currently expanding to satellite cohorts throughout the Central Pacific District via online education.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

In the context of its commitment to the Foursquare Statement of Faith, Central Valley School of Ministry is a school that adheres to the following tenets of faith based on the Bible, the inspired Word of God.

- We believe in God the Father, creator and sustainer of all, Who so loved humankind, made in His image, that He sent His only Son, Jesus Christ, born of a virgin, to be the Savior of Adam's lost and fallen race.
- We believe in God the Son, Jesus Christ, who through His death and resurrection, is the sufficient sacrifice for the sin of the world. Through repentance and faith all who receive Him are born anew and adopted into the family of God as His children.
- We believe in God the Holy Spirit, Who brings new life to those dead in sin, indwells all who receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, baptizes, fills and gifts for service those who ask in faith, and Who continually transforms into Christ's likeness all who walk according to the Spirit.
- We believe in the Gospel of salvation through Jesus Christ as God's sole and sufficient plan of deliverance from sin's penalty and Satan's power and His full provision of grace for righteous and holy living.
- We believe the Church is the Body of Christ and includes all who through repentance and faith have received Jesus Christ as Savior and publicly confessed and follow Him as Lord.
- We believe the Bible is the Word of God, inspired by the Spirit of God, without error in the original manuscripts and infallible in its truth for faith and life.
- We believe in the unity of the Church under the Lordship of Jesus Christ and His commission to go into all the world preaching the Gospel, baptizing those who believe and making disciples of all nations.
- We believe in the imminent, visible, bodily return of Jesus Christ to earth to reign in righteousness and in the final judgment of all humankind into eternal union with God of those who believe in Jesus Christ and eternal separation from God of those who do not believe.
